

Fall in love with Langebaan's No. 1 Wedding Destination

Romancing the sun

For many brides, finding the perfect wedding venue is just as important as finding the perfect life partner. The choice of venue sets the tone for the theme, décor, flowers, lighting, food and style of photography. It's important to have it reflect the couple's personalities, as well as cater to their needs.

Sun-blessed Langebaan Country Estate, situated along South Africa's West Coast in the charming seaside village of Langebaan, just 100 kilometers outside of Cape Town, is renowned for its Gary Player Black Knight designed 18-hole golf course. It's also an enduringly popular choice for weddings.

The wedding venue can comfortably host up to 120 guests and includes a dance floor. The rate is from R2 500 for the venue, inclusive of cutlery, crockery, tables and tablecloths, and of course our stunning West Coast backdrop, for those magnificent, 'once in a lifetime' photographs. Our Management team can really cater for any palate, and will tailor the menu to your requests.

There are two dining package options:

- Day weddings: brunch/lunch from R125 pp.
- Three-course dinner menu including starters, 2 mains and 2 desserts from R155 pp.
